

General Terms and Conditions:

1. General terms and conditions are considered accepted unless notice to the contrary is received.
2. Proposals for services or products will define any special conditions supplementing these general terms and conditions.
3. This proposal assumes that all domestic and international regulations that pertain to this transport remain unchanged at the time of shipment.
4. Subject to chosen carrier's acceptance of the shipment at time of transport and throughout duration of the contract.
5. Should any changes occur to the scope of the project which are beyond TAM International's control, TAM International will submit justification for increased costs for acceptance and approval.
6. During the scope of the project, should any interim storage be required due to unforeseen circumstances, TAM International will advise of associated costs for the storage.
7. This proposal does not include any demurrage or detention charges that may be assessed unless specified in the quotation.
8. Force majeure: in the event of an occurrence beyond the control of TAM International that prevents the completion of obligations under this contract, including but not limited to acts of God, war, hostilities, strikes, lock outs or acts of terrorism, written notice shall be given to the affected parties and force majeure will be instituted.
9. This proposal assumes that cargo loss and damage insurance is being provided by the customer and is not included in this proposal. TAM International's carrier's liability for cargo loss and damage is limited to $2.00 per pound up to a maximum of $80,000 per truckload while transporting by road and a maximum of $500 per sea container while transporting by rail or sea. A quotation for full cargo loss and damage coverage can be provided by TAM International upon request.
